

High performance soccer centre

SOCCER players of all ages, in Busselton and Dunsborough, can look forward to a year of exciting football opportunities.

For some the Soccer World Cup will be highlight of 2010, but for Perry Krakowczyk and Paul Wozny it extends further, with the expansion of the Football Federation South West High Performance Centre.

This year there are programs to suit both male and female players, aged from (4-17), who have a passion for the world game.

Perry Krakowczyk is the Regional Development Officer for the South West and the Head Coach for the South West Academy of Sport and will be one of the coaches at the centre.

At Ajax: Marco Van Basten and Perry Krakowczyk.

He will be joined by Paul Wozny, a highly qualified and experienced coaches, with more than 20 years experience coaching professional football.

Together they bring a wealth of knowledge to the South West, which will help provide an outstanding training program for junior players.

Last year Perry went to Europe, to learn from the coaches at AFC

Ajax Amsterdam, who are renowned for their world-class academy.

Players and parents are invited to an information and registration tomorrow evening at Bunbury Catholic College Hall, Rodstead Street, Bunbury commencing at 6.30pm.

Please contact Perry if you have any more enquiries on 0410 568 560.
