

Reynolds number one

LOCAL BMX star Lauren Reynolds capped off an outstanding year on the track by taking out the major prize at the South West Academy of Sport's inaugural annual awards last Friday night.

The exciting Clifton Park talent was named the winner of the SWAS 2009 Sports Star of the Year Award (sponsored by The Griffin Group) and accepted her trophy at a special gala dinner at the All Seasons Sanctuary Golf Resort.

Reynolds competed at several international events this year to earn an impressive seventh overall placing in the 2009 UCI BMX Supercross World Cup, placing her in a prime position to claim the award.
