

SW scholarships

DUNSBOROUGH cyclist Rowan Brown is one of 10 South West sports people who will receive a boost in their sporting career after receiving a scholarship from the South West Academy of Sport.

Margaret River surfers Matthew Bladock, Laura Macaulay and Creed McTaggart also received scholarships which will give them access to extra services to help fuel their future in the sport.

SWAS chief executive Bernice Butlion said the scholarships included access to sports medicine and career development programs.