Sports Academy

THE South West Academy of Sport board visited Margaret River on Thursday, June 25 to give locals the opportunity to learn more about its talent development and scholarship programs.

Local surfing champions Creed McTaggart, Matthew Baldock and Laura Macaulay are among those who receive support from the academy.

The academy thanked local sponsors, including the Rotary Club of Margaret River which was presented with a certificate of appreciation.

The board's next meeting is at Manjimup on August 27.
