

Busselton boys shooting hoops for WA

FOUR Busselton boys will be taking basketball to the next level after they were selected to represent WA as members of the State Country Under 16 Boys competing in the National Basketball Championships.

Beau Chinnery, Damian Lee, Dylan Ness and Connor Bradbury will be travelling to Ulverstone in Tasmania this month to compete in the championships.

The boys were selected together with 25 other members from the South West, nine of these from the Busselton, Margaret River and Dunsborough areas aged 14-16 were offered scholarships for basketball in 2008 by the South West Academy of Sport.

The championships start on July 11 with finals on July 18.

Training for the trip meant participants had to travel to Bunbury almost every week for the program with intense training from specialised coaches and nutritionists.

Damian Lee, Dylan Ness, Beau Chinnery and Connor Bradbury will represent WA as members of the Under 16s Basketball Team, competing at the Australian Championships in Tasmania. PICTURE: DEREK POOL

The sports program is an endeavour to achieve and maintain a standard of excellence in the sport enhancing the athletes' opportunity to progress to the highest level of achievement.