

Big local presence in State basketball side

BASKETBALL: A large group of basketball representatives from the South West Academy of Sport have been chosen to represent Western Australia at the upcoming national championships in Tasmania.

Current SWAS scholarship players Jarrad Watson, Damien Lee, Carey Watkins and Connor Bradbury as well as SWAS prep players Beau Chinnery and Dylan Ness make up 60 per cent of the Under 16 men's team.

They will strive for national honours at the Under 16 Australian Junior Basketball Championships at Ulverstone in July.

SWAS scholarship players Dena English and Ellie Deighton have been joined in the women's team by Basketball South West prep players Brittany Gliddon and Laura Jeffery to take on the best players in Australia at the nationals.
