

Youth in State team

MANJIMUP'S Riley Hutchinson is one of five South West Academy of Sport athletes who will fly the flag for Western Australia at the upcoming School Sport Australia Football Championships in Maroochydore.

The event attracts students from throughout the country and this year Hutchinson will be among more than 300 teenagers taking part.

A highlight of the school sports calendar since 1923, the annual competition sees students from around Australia clash for national supremacy.

The representatives from SWAS are already in training for the championships, being held between July 25 and August 1.
