

Soccer's elite youth put on impressive display

ACADEMY soccer players from as far away as Albany joined local teams at a soccer carnival at Churchill Park last weekend.

About 180 male and female players competed in the event on Saturday and Sunday in all age divisions.

South West Academy of Sport soccer coach Perry Krakowczyk said he was impressed by the performance of Busselton and Dunsborough teams in the event even though Bunbury side Country Coastal took away the event's shield.

Lisa-De Vanna, Michelle Lauren and Joeley Goldsmith from the Bunbury academy.

Ruby Tucker, Audrey Tweddell and Annie Riley.

Indiana Lysaght, Adam Fraser, Paul Holt, Myles Carroll and Fraser Harrison.

Cedric Adinkwuie, Josh Kuppens, Ruben Gelmi, Kia Bako and Sol Masters.

Chris Papalia, Edoardo Anderle and Henry Papalia from Busselton.

Margaret River's Creed McKinnon and Busselton player Brodie Harrison.

James Naylor, Jake Ferrell and Jess Wahlsten wait on the substitute bench.

Jenna Reynolds and Lachlan Marsh.
