

Breakfast with basketball stars

JUNIOR basketball talents, including Busselton's Beau Chinnery, Damien Lee and Dylan Ness along with Dunsborough's Tom and Sam Fossati, were treated to breakfast with the Perth Wildcats in Bunbury recently.

The teenagers from the South West Academy of Sport were able to chat with the basketball stars, who shared tips and tales.

SWAS basketball development coach Steve Hawkins said four players, including Fossati, were invited to train with the Wildcats after the breakfast.
