

SPORTS STARS GRADUATE

Busselton's Amy Chinnery and Rebecca Preston were among the local South West Academy of Sport basketball players who reflected on their time in the high performance program at their graduation in Bunbury last Friday. Dunsborough twins Tom and Sam Fossati also attended the event along with other athletes, families, coaches and supporters at Bunbury's Lord Forrest Hotel for the event. The highlights of the last year were celebrated which for the local players included being selected for the WA team at the Australian Junior Basketball Championships.
