

Five young hockey stars make State team

HOCKEY: South West Academy of Sport talents Jacob Evans, Michael Nicoli and Marshall Roberts have joined fellow South West residents Lachlan Overton and Kyle Tosana in the State under-15 men's hockey team.

The championships will give the teens the opportunity to step up and test their abilities against some of the best young hockey players in Australia.

SWAS head hockey coach Matt Mellor congratulated the athletes on making the State side and wished them success at the championships.
