

Brent Litch, of Dalzellup, with Luke Deighton and Corey Richardson, both of Bunbury.

Dena English, of Bunbury, Paris Duffield, of Bunbury, and Rikki Cameron, of Margaret River.

Zoe Keller, of Eaton, with Nardia Klem, of Bunbury.

SWAS head basketball coach Steve Hawkins with Darren Richardson, of Bunbury.

Gary Butlion, SWAS chief executive officer Bernice Butlion and Mary Rhodes from Maximum Results Exercise Physicians.

Graduates acknowledged

THE South West Academy of Sport held its inaugural graduation for its basketball graduates at a reception at the Quality Lord Forrest Hotel on Friday.

More than 100 guests were present to acknowledge the efforts of the graduates in the junior teams and boys and girls teams in the Under 14 to Under 18.

Guest speakers included head coach Steve Hawkins, MLA John Castrilli and high performance coach Dave Herbert.

A highlight of the evening was the speech by Perth Lynx basketball player Melissa Marsh, daughter of WA cricketer great Geoff Marsh, about not losing sight of your goals to get to where you want to be.

■ Got an exciting social event coming up and want to see your photos in the South Western Times? To have your event placed on the list for consideration in the social pages, email the details to editor@swtimes.com.au or call our news desk on 9780 0863.

Gill Preston, Dori Lee, Andrea Chinnery and Ritchie Lee, all of Busselton.

Russell Donovan, of Bunbury, Scott Cameron, of Margaret River and Mark English, of Bunbury.

James Goodlad, of Bunbury, with Sam Fossati, of Dunsborough.

Chris and Tanya Branch from The Athletes Foot.

Tyler Hickert, of Bunbury, Tom Fossati, of Dunsborough and Ryan Smith, of Bunbury.

Tony and Linda Fimmano, of Harvey, with Peter Rohrach, of Bunbury.

Anton Fimmano, of Harvey, Tim Davis, of Gelorup and Mitchell Bradbury, of Busselton.

Andrea and Dan Hickert, of Bunbury, with Laurie Keene, of Gracetown, and Kellie Fossati, of Dunsborough.

Jamie Goodlad from South West Sports Development Commission, MLA John Castrilli with his wife Loretta, and Liz Goodlad.