

Sports academy posts for juniors

YOUNG South West residents excelling in sport will soon have the opportunity to apply for a scholarship through the South West Academy of Sport.

Scholarships will be offered to talented athletes whose sport is not covered by the academy's partner programs of Australian Rules football, soccer, basketball and hockey.

Academy chief executive Bernice Butlion said applications for scholarships will be called for at the end of November.

"While there is still about a month to go until the individual athlete program is advertised, it is time for people to start thinking about applying," she said.

"If you are good enough and match the criteria of one of the four scholarship categories there's no reason why you shouldn't apply.

"I encourage gifted young athletes to keep an eye out for advertisements set to appear in local newspapers at the end of next month."

More information about the scholarship program and the South West Academy of Sport can be found at the web site:

www.swaswa.com.au