

Function thanks sport academy sponsors

SOUTH West Academy of Sport sponsors, including the South Western Times, were recognised at a function in Bunbury on Friday night.

Supporters of the academy received certificates of appreciation during a Business After Hours event at Chamber House.

Local businesspeople also had the opportunity to meet academy chief executive officer Bernice Butlion, who recently arrived in Bunbury from South Africa to take on the role.

■ Got an exciting social event coming up and want to see your photos in the South Western Times? To have your event placed on the list for consideration in the social pages, email the details to editor@swtimes.com.au or call our news desk on 9780 0863.

Amanda Frontino, of Bunbury, Jay Drummond, of Aussie Homeloans and Susan Frontino, of Ventura Homes.

Bill Inwood, of Bunbury, and South West Business Association secretary Laurence Connolly.

Michele Moro from Realty Executives and Cecily Robertson from REMAX Harbour City.

Games World owner Jeff Repacholi, Australian Railway Group business manager Dave Rankine and RSM Bird Cameron accountant, Rob McFarlane.

Nichola Caddy, of Fire and Lime, and Kris Annane, of Performance Business Sales.

WAPRES general manager Ian Telfer and Bunbury Chamber of Commerce and Industries chief executive officer Allan Birrell.

Tom McDonnell, of Trophies West, and Neville Eastman of Eastman & Co.

Hitachi Bunbury branch manager Jonathan Dark and sales representative Bill Muir.